

ACTIVE LISTENING PRINCIPLES

Dorothy I. Riddle, Ph.D., CMC
Service-Growth Consultants Inc.
riddle@servicegrowth.com

Active listening involves:

1. Seeking information
2. Listening uncritically and non-evaluatively
3. Reframing; reflecting; clarifying
4. Acknowledging feelings without agreeing or disagreeing
5. Taking in criticism
[exploring; seeking suggestions; acknowledging one's own mistakes]
6. Taking in compliments
[acknowledging; seeking clarification; letting them stand alone]